

The Global Data Recovery Leader

Why Choose Us?

While other companies claim to be world leaders, here are the facts:

- Kroll Ontrack is the oldest and largest Data Recovery company in the world. We performed the World's First Data Recovery way back in 1987 and have been building on that experience and expertise ever since.
- Kroll Ontrack offer completely transparent and honest pricing and services. The prices we quote are all inclusive, and are the most you will ever pay for a data recovery through us. We do not have any hidden fees, or escalated pricing for "difficult" or "special" cases.
- Kroll Ontrack have unrivalled resources in the Data Recovery market. In addition to a team of local, Australian Data Recovery experts, we have a worldwide network of hundreds of engineers and developers ready to assist if required.
- We've seen your problem before. Worldwide, Kroll Ontrack complete over 50,000 recoveries every year – from memory cards right up to the most complex Enterprise Data Storage systems. No matter what your issue is, or how you've lost your data, we've seen it before and can give you the very best chance to recover your data.
- Every week in Australia we recover data from media that other companies have deemed unrecoverable. The first attempt at Data Recovery is generally the best chance you have at recovering your data, so bring it to the people who can get it back the first time.
